

INSPIRING THE FUTURE

Volunteers sharing their career story in schools, to broaden student's horizons and raise their aspirations.

Sign up as a volunteer for Inspiring the Future Australia on our free, secure website to share your career story with young people, or sign up as a primary or secondary school teacher to invite volunteers to speak with your students.

How does Inspiring the Future (ITF) work?

ITF asks volunteers; apprentices to CEO's, archaeologists to zoologists, to spare one hour a year to share with young people about their job, career and the education route they took through different activities such as interview practice or career speed networking.

Connected through a secure website, teachers can select volunteers from a range of sectors and professions, to share their story informally with students. The ITF campaign originated in the UK and has had great success since its launch in 2012; connecting over 30,000 volunteers with over one million students.
