

inspiring the future.org.au

The free, quick and easy way for schools and volunteers from the world of work to connect!

The Inspiring the Future campaign originated in the UK and has had great success since its launch in 2012, connecting over 30,000 volunteers with over 1,000,000 students. Now launching in Australia, Inspiring the Future asks volunteers from apprentices to CEOs, archaeologists to zoologists, to pledge at least one hour a year to talk to young people about their job, career and the education route that they took.

Benefits for Schools

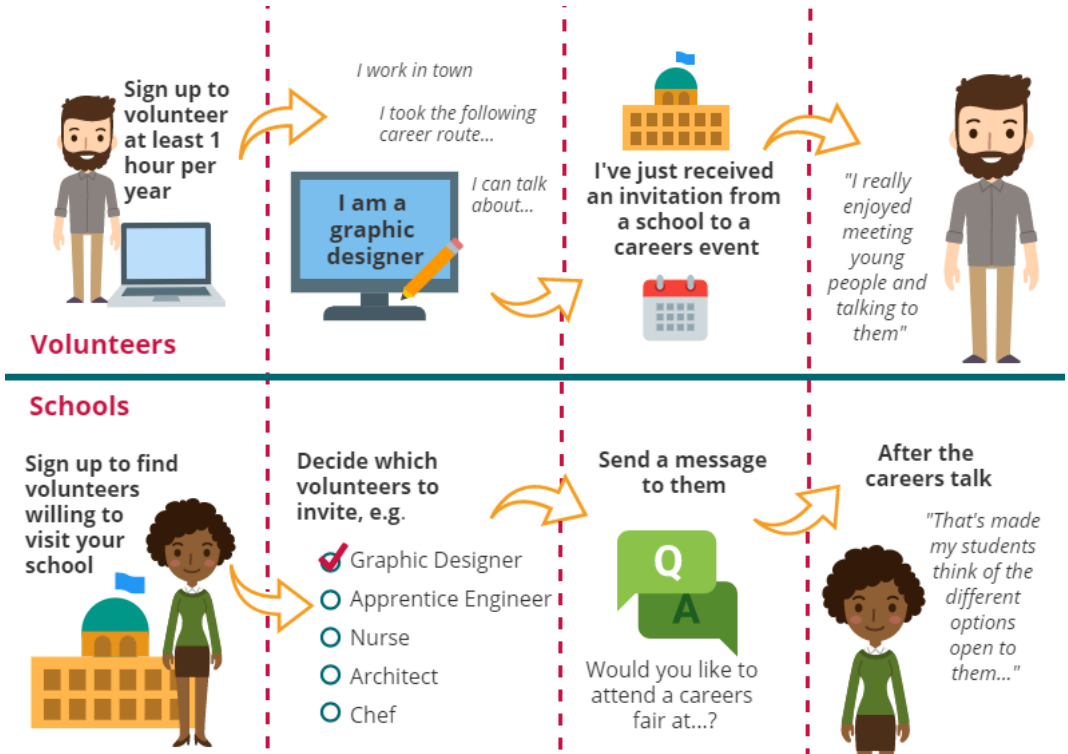

- Free secure service
- 1,000's of volunteers from Apprentices to CEOs to invite at the touch of a button
- Volunteers available for different activities: career insights, resume writing, mock interviews, skill workshops, numeracy and literacy application, and exchanging expectation discussions

Benefits for Employers, Professional bodies & Volunteers

- Free secure service
- Individual volunteers create their profile and choose if they can attend
- Let young people know about careers in your sector
- Personal development opportunities
- Support corporate social responsibility and recruitment objectives
- Access to reports on staff level of involvement

To sign up, go to: www.inspiringthefuture.org.au
Contact: jclifford@northernfutures.org.au or call: 0413 883 085

How does Inspiring the Future work?

Teachers and volunteers are connected through a secure website, selecting people who best meet the needs of their students from a range of sectors and professions. At the heart of Inspiring the Future, is volunteers talking informally about their job, career and their educational route, in order to broaden the horizons and raise the aspirations of young people.

To sign up, go to: www.inspiringthefuture.org.au

Contact: jclifford@northernfutures.org.au or call: 0413 883 085